

“Teen drivers need the influence of parental involvement and guidance to keep them safe.”

www.ihs.org/research/quanda/gdl.html

WASHINGTON, D.C. The National Highway Traffic Safety Administration

for teens who have recently acquired their driver's license. Lack of experience parents are the ultimate authority when it comes to driving. Driving is a privilege, not a right. Teens need to understand that

Under YOUR Influence

There's no doubt about it.

Raising kids is one of the most – if not THE most – challenging things in life.

You want the best for your child. You're a parent who cares, a parent who wants the reassurance that you're doing the right thing, especially when it comes to teaching them how to drive safely.

With automobile crashes as the leading cause of death for teens, your role as teacher, encourager, and enforcer - YOUR Influence - is more important now than ever.

Your teen needs YOUR influence when learning to drive.

Check out www.underyourinfluence.org for helpful resources.

YOUR Teen Driver

YOUR Influence

Drive by the Rules.

Keep the Privilege.